- to be an active learner and take responsibility for aspects of their own learning
- to be accountable for their own behaviour
- to support and care for one another
- to respect the rights of others
- to represent the school in a positive manner
- to follow the school rules

STAFF Responsibilities

- to foster positive, respectful and appropriate relationships with students, and also with parents and other staff
- to support and promote each student as a valued member of our community.
- to support students in learning.
- to support colleagues.
- to provide a curriculum which is appropriate and designated to encourage students to succeed and maximize their potential.
- to undertake professional development.
- to encourage and support students to take responsibility for their own behavior.
- to be consistent in the implementation of the policies of the school.

Review of Policy

These Policies and procedures may be reviewed from time to time to meet changing community standards and to take account of experience in implementation of Policy and procedures. Each new version will be communicated to the Students, Teachers and Parents.

CONSEQUENCES OF A BREACH OF THE RULES

Important Note:

Every child is expected to follow the rules laid down as a part of the school policy for the smooth functioning and positive learning environment. However, in case of breach of the rules, the consequences shall be based on the severity of the breach. Vice Principal or Principal or Management.

- Level 1: Conference: the teacher will confer with the student and may contact parents by phone. In Addition, a meeting may be required with a teacher, student, counsellor, parent or other appropriate person.
- Level 2: Detention: teachers may require that the student attend a detention, or the co-ordinators and/or Head of School may issue a Friday, Saturday or holiday detention.
- Level 3: Temporary removal from class: a student, for cause, may be removed from a given class and referred to the appropriate Co-ordinator or Head of School. The appropriate letter to parents must be completed and followed up.
- Level 4: Internal Suspension: this can only be given by the Head of School, Vice Principal or Principal. Students will work in a designated area at school, but be excluded from all classes and contact with other students. Parents are to be notified.
- Level 5: Suspension: the Head of School, after discussion with the Vice Principal or Principal, may suspend a student for one to ten school days. Students who are suspended from school may not participate in any school sponsored activities and are not permitted on school grounds during the period of suspension (see flowchart). A full and fair investigation will always be held by the appropriate people before any decision on suspension is made.

- Level 6: Expulsion: the Principal, after due process, may determine that a student be permanently removed from the school.

SAMPLE BREACHES AND CONSEQUENCES

Students are expected not to engage in the following activities.

The consequences apply regardless of whether this misbehaviour took place in school, on the school bus, or out of school when the student is in school uniform. The consequences may also apply for misbehaviours which take place at other locations, but directly affect school programs or activities. This includes interschool sports, camps, carnivals, excursions and the like. We recognise that there can be an enormous variation in breaches and hence the range of sanctions that may apply. These consequences are a guideline only and variations may occur at the discretion of the Principal or Vice-Principal. The Management or Principal or Vice Principal may recommend longer suspensions, expulsion, denial of transportation privileges or other discipline on a case by case basis. This may include severe consequences for students with multiple offences in different categories of misbehaviour.

Important Note: The consequences for breach will be based on the severity of the breach, and on prior disciplinary actions. Consequences are not progressive but will be applied as appropriate. Further sanctions may be applied at the discretion of the Vice Principal or Principal or Management depending on the severity of the breach.
